March Brain Injury Awareness Month Celebration

March is Brain Injury Awareness Month. Help raise awareness of brain injury through events, social media and in your communities.

Get Involved

Tell Us What Your Community Is Doing

Help us feature activities in commemoration of Brain Injury Awareness Month.

Email oabi@hhsc.state.tx.us with details about your community’s activities.

Order Awareness Materials

The Office of Acquired Brain Injury offers a variety of free brain injury resource material you can order or download to print at home. To learn more, visit hhsc.pinnaclecart.com/brain-injury/.

Learn More and Find Events

Office of Acquired Brain Injury:
hs.texas.gov/services/disability/office-acquired-brain-injury

Comprehensive Rehabilitation Services:
hs.texas.gov/services/disability/comprehensive-rehabilitation-services-crs

Office of Disability Prevention for Children:
hs.texas.gov/disability-prevention

Follow Us on Social Media

- Facebook:
  facebook.com/TexasHHSC
- Twitter:
  @TexasHHSC
Texas Events

TIRR Memorial Hermann Rehab Solution 2019: The Changing Landscape in Health Care & Rehabilitation

- 8 a.m.-5 p.m. March 1
- Norris Conference Centers, 816 Town & Country Blvd., Suite 210, Houston, TX 77024
- Rehab Solutions is an advanced acute case management conference featuring national recognized experts in the field of rehabilitation speaking about current treatment techniques and research initiatives that affect people with catastrophic injuries and illnesses. To learn more, visit tirr.memorialhermann.org/professional-resources-education.

Northeast Texas Brain Injury Summit 2019

- 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. March 7
- 11937 U.S. Highway 271, Tyler, TX 75708
- Join the Northeast Texas Brain Injury Collaborative at their Third Annual Summit at UT Health Science Center of Tyler. This year’s summit will focus on sports-related brain injuries and include updates in diagnosis, treatment and long-term care. To learn more, visit TexasBrainSummit.com.

Alamo Head Injury Association Brain Injury Symposium

- 8 a.m.-4 p.m. March 7
- St. Paul’s Community Center, 1201 Donaldson Ave., San Antonio, TX 78228
- Opportunity for community professionals to get additional education and support to work with people living with and affected by brain injury. To learn more, visit AlamoHeadInjury.org.

Partners in Recovery, Partners in Life: Traveling the Path after Traumatic Brain Injury

- 8:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. March 9
- UT Southwestern West Campus Building 3, 2001 Inwood Drive, Dallas, TX 75390
- Co-hosted by Hope After Brain Injury, UT Southwestern Peter O’Donnell Jr. Brain Institute and North Texas TBI Model System. To learn more, call Traci Byrd at 214-645-1708 or email Traci.Byrd@UTSouthwestern.edu.

Wear Green Day

- March 13
- Wear green in support of Brain Injury Awareness Day on Capitol Hill
Brain Injury Awareness Month Celebration

- 9 a.m.-noon March 20 with presentations from 10-11:30 a.m.
- Texas Health and Human Services, Brown-Heatly Building, Public Hearing Room, 4900 N. Lamar Blvd., Austin, TX 78751
- A celebration of brain injury prevention work done in Texas that helps to improve outcomes for people living with brain injury. This event includes a resource fair, stories from survivors and caregivers, and networking.

Register at brain-injury-awareness.eventbrite.com.

Inaugural New Braunfels Regional Rehabilitation Hospital Brain Injury Awareness Resource Fair

- 10 a.m.-2 p.m. March 23
- Gruene Harley-Davidson, 1288 Texas Highway 337, New Braunfels, TX 78120
- Opportunity to learn more about brain injuries. There will be educational information for adults and fun activities for children.

Walk for Brain Injury

- 9-11:30 a.m. March 30
- Addison Circle Park, 4970 Addison Circle, Addison, TX 75001
- Join the Brain Injury Association of America — Texas Division in their yearly Walk for Brain Injury. BIAA-Texas is committed to bringing help, hope and healing to all Texans impacted by brain injury. To learn more, visit biausa.org/texas.

Support groups meet every month throughout Texas. Find a support group near you by visiting hhs.texas.gov/brain-injury.

National Event

Brain Injury Awareness Day