

Dementia in Long-Term Care and Community Settings

The Texas Department on Aging and Disability Services (DADS) in collaboration with Texas State University are hosting an informative one-day, free event focusing on dementia in long-term care and community settings. If you are interested in attending please see registration link below.

Register at: <http://texastakingthenextstep.com/>